International "Stash" Rules

- Cap hold does not apply to 1st round pick who won't play in NBA in that season
- 2nd round draft picks do not generate cap holds
- International contract buyout rules:
  - If the buyout exceeds $575k, the excess applies to team salary
  - Excess must not be more than 40% of scale for first round draft picks
  - For 6th pick, this amount is $1,632,440
- Player can be signed as free agent after 3 years for more than 120% of rookie scale

With the 6th pick in the 2013 NBA Draft, the New Orleans Pelicans select...

- Nerlens Noel, 7'0" C, Kentucky –Elite shot blocker, great defensive potential. Limited but improving offensive game.
- Ben McLemore, 6'5" SG, Kansas – Athletic, great shooter. Solid measurements for SG. Needs to be more assertive.
- Victor Oladipo, 6'4" SG, Indiana – Freak athlete, tremendous defender. Unrelenting motor. Needs to work on ball skills.
- Otto Porter, 6'9" SF, Georgetown – Most versatile wing in draft. Can shoot, pass, dribble, & defend. Thin, weak frame.
- Trey Burke, 6'1" PG, Michigan –Skilled shooter and passer who thrives in pick & roll. Excellent leader. Not an elite athlete.
- Alex Len, 7'1" C, Maryland – Most well-rounded 7-footer in draft. Athletic for his size. Drive to realize potential questionable.
- Anthony Bennett, 6'7" F, UNLV – Great athlete, can score in the post & on the perimeter. Good rebounder. Horrible defender.
- C.J. McCollum, 6'3" G, Lehigh – Hyper-efficient scorer w/ range. Good rebounder for size. Lacks PG skills/vision & short for SG.
- Michael Carter-Williams, 6'6" PG, Syracuse – Strong ball-handler & passer. Great size for PG position. Weak shooter.
- Kentavious Caldwell-Pope, 6'6" SG, Georgia – Elite shooter. Solid defender & passer. Weak handles & suspect off dribble.
- Cody Zeller, 7'0" C, Indiana – Agile & fast big man. Solid scorer w/ decent ball skills for size. Lacks physicality.
